Final Presentation (Critique) of Semester's Work: At the close of the semester students will be required to submit the collection of the semester's work. The work is not considered finished until it has been submitted in this final form. Listening carefully during critiques and taking note of the instructor's suggestions will provide the student with ideas for each assignment's final completion. The final portfolio should be submitted in a visually attractive manner and annotated to reference the refinements and corrections you have made to the work. If work was not turned in on time originally, resulting in a zero, it may now be turned in as part of the portfolio grade. Select the seven best pieces (preferably, not value scale or color wheel). Three pieces must be properly matted and readied for presentation. Students may substitute one framed matted piece of art for the 3 mat requirement. Absences and Tardies

Absence Policy Each absence is worth 3.2 points (100 points divided by 31 class days).

Point Deduction:

Points will not be deducted for the first 3 absences.

See the adjacent scale to determine the deductions thereafter.

There are no excused absences except for those officially excused for college-sanctioned activities.

The 3 "free" absences should cover any need to recuperate from a virus, meet your grandmother at the airport, accompany your husband on a business trip, coordinate with your home plumber, etc. Do not ask that these minor absences be excused.

If extraordinary circumstances (death in the immediate family, hospitalization, for example) present themselves, please talk to the instructor about the absences.

Arriving Late or Leaving Early:

Arrival to class at any point after the instructor has begun the announcements / instruction or leaving before the end of class will be considered a one third an absence.

If either is more than 45 minutes, it will be considered $\frac{1}{2}$ absent.

Summer School:

Each morning and each afternoon count as an absence. In other words, each day equals two absences.

Absence Make-up:

It is possible to make up THREE absences.

Once you have been absent 6 times (20% of the semester), you may not make up any more points.

Please see the instructor for make-up opportunities. Usually the make-up can be completed by attending Open Lab in G301/G303 (signing in/out with assistant's signature.)

Keep in mind that making up an absence is not the same as being in class.

Active participation in class gives students directions, demonstrations, announcements, lectures, critiques, personal instruction, and peer support. Making up the points for an absence does not mean that other expectations (assignments and projects) will not be affected by the lack of attendance.

Discipline/ Course/ Department/Policies

Expectations: Much of class time will be dedicated to the execution of the assigned projects. It is essential that you attend class on time and fully. It is during studio time that you will be able to receive assistance from the instructor, that the instructor is able to see your growth, and that you can interact with other visual artists. However, you may find it necessary to work outside of class to finish work on time. It is imperative that you come to class prepared to work. This means keeping up with the required assignments and having supplies ready for class. After each project or group of projects, we will have a group critique (discussion) about the class work. This is your opportunity to express opinions and views. Your participation in these critiques is expected. You are expected to take notes from class lectures and be in attendance.

Late Assignment Policy: Assignments are not accepted late, except with the permission of the instructor.

Music: If you prefer to listen to music during class, bring your own personal listening device with earphones.

Breaks: Except when the structure of the class necessitates structured breaks, students are free to take short breaks as appropriate.

Mobile phones: Please take all phone calls outside the studio.

Continuing Education Students: Requirements and expectations are the same for Continuing Education students as for Credit students..

WEOTA is our NLC art club. All students enrolled in art classes and those others who are interested in art are considered members. Meetings are held during the fall and spring semesters.

Annual Portfolio Review is held at the end of the fall semester for those art students who wish to have their work rated by the faculty and juried for competitions and scholarships. Work is returned at the beginning of spring semester.

Annual Student Spring Exhibition is held at the end of the spring semester. All art students are eligible to enter their work. An outside juror makes award selections.

Storage of Student Art Materials and Supplies:

- Lockers (located in the G Hall) are provided for art students on a first-come basis. Students are expected to share a locker and provide their own locks. Each locker should be labeled with ELECTRICAL tape with this information: Name, Teacher Name, and Semester/Year. If lockers are not labeled correctly, the locks will be cut and the contents removed.
- Storage for portfolios and paintings is provided in G301. The room is used by many classes so this storage is unsecured.

Studio Clean Up: Students are expected to clean up after themselves at the end of each class. Easels should be wiped down to remove charcoal, pastel, or paint; and the easels should be returned to a circular configuration in the room without blocking sinks or storage areas. Painting students should wipe up any paint from the sinks.

Lost and Found: See the police, C204.

Degrees and Certificates:

- Associate Degree of Applied Science in Computer Graphics
- Computer Graphics Certificate
- Computer Graphics Specialist Certificate (Print, Web, or Animation)

2D Art Lab Policies

The 2D Studio Lab is restricted to use by only currently enrolled students in Painting, Drawing, and Design Classes who are attending art classes on a regular basis and are in good standing in the classes.

The 2D Studio Lab is available to approved art students to use for required class work during posted Open Lab hours.

The following rules and regulations must be followed at all times:

1. The "storage room" inside G302 is predominantly used for storage of equipment and supplies. It is intended for instructor use.
2. Student paintings (class work for current semester only) are to be stored in the provided painting racks.
3. Student portfolios and work are to be stored in assigned shelves or cabinets.
4. Students' art work must fit into the storage racks and shelves available in this lab. Over-sized work is not acceptable.
5. Students are encouraged to store their personal materials and supplies in the art lockers on a first-come, first-served basis. Regulations concerning lockers are posted in the locker area. There is no student supply storage in G301-3.
6. At the end of the semester, students must remove all personal items and artwork from the lab. NLC will not be responsible for work after the close of the semester unless arrangements have been made with the instructor and the 2D Studio Lab coordinator.
7. Students using the facilities outside of class time must leave the work areas clean and be sure all personal work and supplies are stored away as stated above.
8. Students using the lab may not move or remove anyone else's paintings, supplies, etc.; nor will they rearrange the lab or storage room in any way.
9. All students working independently in the lab must work with the guidelines of the course of which they are enrolled (see class syllabus) and follow all art Lab Policies.
10. Students must follow instructions of the Open Lab assistant concerning the use of the room, storage of materials, and clean-up.

Students who violate these lab rules and regulations will be prohibited from further use of the 2D Art Lab other than while attending regularly scheduled classes.

G301-3 Safe Studio Practices:

- Explanations and descriptions of possible hazardous materials are found in a binder marked "MSDS" in the yellow flammable closet in G302.
- Students are responsible for contributing to a safe studio environment.
- Do not drink or eat in the studio because of possible harm of ingestion of hazardous chemicals.
- The dirty turpentine container must be recapped after use.
- Oily and solvent laden trash must be disposed of in the red receptacle.
- Use Spray Workable Fixatives and other spray paints outside.
- Do not leave rubber cement and glues uncapped for extended periods of time.

- Use the correct knife for the cutting job at hand. Keep fingers well out of the way. Always protect the table or counter on which the cutting is done.
- Student supplies should be kept in the student locker room. Any supplies left in G302-3 must be labeled, stored in the proper containers, and flammable materials stored in the fire-safe cabinet.

See your instructor or Chris Fulmer for additional materials on safety in the studio

DROP POLICY

If you are unable to complete this course, you must officially withdraw by Thursday, November 17, 2011. Withdrawing is a formal procedure which you must initiate; your instructor cannot do it for you. All Dallas County Community Colleges charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third time for a course. This rule applies to the majority of credit and Continuing Education / Workforce Training courses. Developmental Studies and some other courses are not charged a higher tuition rate. Third attempts include courses taken at any DCCCD college since the fall 2002 semester. For further information, go online to: <http://www.DCCCD.edu/thirdcourseattempt> .

STOP BEFORE YOU DROP

For students who enrolled in college level courses for the first time in the fall of 2007, Texas Education Code 51.907 limits the number of courses a student may drop. You may drop no more than 6 courses during your entire undergraduate career unless the drop qualifies as an exception. Your campus counseling/advising center will give you more information on the allowable exceptions. Remember that once you have accumulated 6 non-exempt drops, you cannot drop any other courses with a “W”. Therefore, please exercise caution when dropping courses in any Texas public institution of higher learning, including all seven of the Dallas County Community Colleges. For more information, you may access:

<https://www1.dcccd.edu/coursedrops>

FINANCIAL AID STATEMENT

Students who are receiving any form of financial aid should check with the Financial Aid Office prior to withdrawing from classes. Withdrawals may affect your eligibility to receive further aid and could cause you to be in a position of repayment for the current semester. Students who fail to attend or participate are also subject to this policy.

To apply for financial aid in the DCCCD, students must complete FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) on the web at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov> .

Counseling services for personal issues are provided to all students currently enrolled at North Lake College. These services are provided by licensed professionals who are bound by confidentiality (within ethical parameters) at no charge. With the assistance of a counselor, students are able to identify, understand, resolve issues and develop appropriate skills. To make an appointment call 972-273-3333 or visit A 430.

WRITING CENTER (A309)

The Writing Center supports and supplements classroom instruction by providing focused, individualized writing tutoring in response to the specific needs of the student. The tutors are skilled writing specialists who can help students clarify writing tasks, understand instructors' requirements, develop and organize papers, explore revision options, detect grammar and punctuation errors, and properly use and document sources. Rather than merely editing or “fixing” your papers, the Writing Center staff focuses on helping you develop and improve your writing skills. Be sure to schedule an appointment in advance so that a tutor will be available to work with you. Walk-ins are welcome, but you may have to wait or come back at a later time.

You can also access the North Lake College Online Writing Lab through eCampus. Once you log into eCampus, click on the Community Tab at the top. Type in "Owl" in the search field to locate. Follow the instructions on the site to enroll in and receive services from the OWL.

MATTING

- Why a mat?* A mat has two major functions:
1. It provides protection of the artwork from handling.
 2. It separates the artwork from the visual distractions of the surrounding environment.
- Mat color* The mat color should be chosen to make the artwork look its best. This usually means white or black. Museums use only white mats. (Decor mats used for home or office interior design may be a variety of colors.) For this class choose only white or off-white.
- Mat proportion* The size of the mat affects how the viewer views the artwork. A mat that is unusually small may not provide enough separation between the artwork and the environment. An unusually large mat may make a tiny artwork inside look special. The traditional proportions of a mat border are 3 units on the two sides and top and 3 1/2 units on the bottom. The bottom is larger to create more "weight," which helps support the artwork visually.
It is unusual for acceptable mat borders to be less than 3 inches.
- Matting* In matting, a window is cut in the mat board. A "backing board" is hinged behind it. The artwork is sandwiched in between so that it is visible through the opening. Often acetate or shrink-wrap is enveloped around the mat for protection.
- Dry Mounting* Dry mounting is a process that attaches the artwork to a mat. Depending on the adhesive, it is often considered irreversible. To dry mount with rubber cement, coat both the back of the artwork and the front the mat with rubber cement. Wait until each is tacky, and then press both together – carefully.

HOW TO MAT

Materials

1. 100% rag mat board is the best way to achieve archival quality. For class projects this is not necessary, be aware that you may not want to leave any work that you wish to keep for a long time in a lesser quality mat and backing board.
2. The backing board can either be another piece of mat, foam core, or cardboard.
3. Linen paper tape is again the archival choice; however, using white glue and strips of the same paper as your artwork is also acceptable. Do not use masking tape. Clear packing tape is an excellent substitute.
4. Ruler, straight edge, pencil, utility knife, or mat cutter.

Measure

1. Carefully measure the area of the artwork that you wish to be viewed. There should be at least $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ inch edge left to be under the mat.
2. Decide how wide you want your mat border to be. It is recommended that the width be at least 3 inches. Some artists like to give weight to the bottom border by making it wider than the other three. The top and side borders should always be the same width. The bottom can be wider.

Cutting the Mat

1. On the backside of the mat, use a straight edge, ruler, and a pencil to mark where the opening is to be cut.
2. Always double-check before cutting.
3. Most bevel mat cutters are designed to cut from the back so that the angle of the blade points away for the center of the mat.
4. You will need to make a very slight over-cut at the corners ($\frac{1}{8}$ inch) in order to cut the bevel on the front side.
5. Uneven edges may be lightly sanded with fine sandpaper. Emory boards for filing fingernails work fine.

Backing Board

1. Cut the backing board the same size as the mat. Do not allow it to show around the edges.

Putting it together

1. Lay the two pieces flat on a table with the tops butting each other. The inside of the mats should be facing up.
2. Tape the two pieces together using "t"s.
3. Place the artwork under the opening of the mat. Slide it around until it is aligned correctly
4. Tape it to the backing at the top only. This is done to allow the paper to stretch and shrink with the humidity. If not allowed to do so, it will buckle and wrinkle.
5. Taping: Cut two small pieces of tape. Place the first one sticky side up, catching just the top back side of the art. Place the second piece sticky side down over the first piece of tape, catching the tape and the backing board only.

Finishing Options

1. One option is to place the mat under glass or Plexiglas in a frame.
2. A second option is to wrap the mat in acetate or shrink-wrap.
3. When using acetate, "gift wrap" the edges on the back after the excess has been cut away from the corners
Secure with strong tape, like strapping tape. Never use masking tape.
4. When using shrink wrap, tape all edges to the back using packing tape. Shrink using the hottest blow drier setting and holding the nozzle as close as possible to the shrink wrap as possible without touching. All of the shrink wrap must be heated. It is complete when no wrinkles are left.

North Lake Matting Standards

- a. Neutral mats – preferably white or off-white
- b. Mat -- At least a 3 inch border
- c. Top and sides the same width; bottom can be wider
- d. Mat is T-hinged to backing
- e. Art attached to backing with sticky-side-up-sticky-side-down method of taping
- f. Backing board must be corrugated cardboard or foam core if it is going to be shrink-wrapped.
- g. Backing board should be the same size as the mat board.
- h. NO MASKING OR BLUE TAPE anywhere on or within the mats. Use packing tape or linen tape.
- i. Bevel or straight cuts are equally suitable
- j. For the Spring Show: Shrink wrap is preferred to acetate.

Shrink wrap: Make sure the wrap is unfolded. ALL edges must be taped down. If the wrap does not completely surround the piece, it will curl. The backing must be stiff. If the piece is very large, two pieces of backing board need to be used to keep it from bending.

Mat board (about $6) and backing board ($2) is sold in the NLC Bookstore. Local arts and crafts also carry similar products.
